THINK INTERNATIONAL

My experience as a student in Shanghai

My experience was in Shanghai
Double bachelor degree between:
Politecnico di Milano and Tongji Daxue
I was there 2 years between 2008 and 2011

China is big but very easily «travellable»

Is it difficult to use chopsticks?
Yes, but you will learn before starving!

Hand Pulled noodles

Do you get to eat «strange animals»?
Only if you want to!! (And you have to make big efforts to find where)

Do you have to speak Chinese?

Not necessary...
BUT!

In University everyone speaks English...
People in the street do not speak English in general, so it is a good opportunity to learn it!

Or you will have to use Google translate a lot.

Expected life

International friends from all over the world...

Also Italian communities

And Chinese friends...

You can decide! One day with one group another day with another.
It is very easy to make new friends. We were all expats looking for new friends.
And friendship will remain for ever!
